We are pleased to inform that Mr Ong Ye Kung, Singapore Minister for Education has accepted SMF President Douglas Foo's invitation to come to SMF for dialogue with members and companies on Thursday 4 October at 1600 at SMF office.

We would like to invite CEOs and senior management representatives of companies to attend this Complimentary Dialogue session. This will be a good opportunity for companies to come together to give your feedback on this important subject of education and have dialogue with Minister Ong Ye Kung, one of the 4G Leaders.

The subject of education is important and will impact on future job market scenarios. It is important for industry to give feedback on the type of talents that you may require for the future of your industries. Minister Ong is expected to cover long life education, preparing for future workforce, education, careers and other aspects.

Attendance is FOC but pre-registration is required and pre-acceptance will be required.
