Singapore Stopover: Meet Zara Rutherford

19-year-old Zara Rutherford from Belgium is attempting to become the youngest woman in history to fly solo around the world and the youngest person to fly solo around the world in an ultralight aircraft. Her mission is to draw attention to and improve gender equality in aviation and technical fields (STEM) in general. Flying a Shark Ultralight aircraft of Czech-Slovak origin, Zara is on the Asian leg of her journey and is scheduled to make a brief stopover in Singapore (Seletar Airport) tentatively on 25 November 2021.

During her stopover in Singapore, Zara will engage with students and aviation enthusiasts in a webinar co-organised by AAIS, Women in Aviation International Singapore Chapter, and the Belgian and Czech embassies. Member of Parliament and former RSAF Helicopter pilot Ms Poh Li San, the Belgian Ambassador to Singapore HE Colette Taquet, and the Czech Ambassador to Singapore HE Michaela Fronkova are scheduled to speak as Guests-of-Honour. Members are invited to register their interest to attend this webinar.

AAIS' Year-end HOST Networking (online)

Dec 10, 2021
(4 PM - 5 PM)
(GMT+8)

2021 is drawing to a close. With the gradual re-opening of borders and air travel, recovery is in the air. Let's share some year-end cheer and look forward to fresh beginnings.

Come and join our year-end HOST Networking event online. AAIS' newly-elected President, Wong Yue Jeen (SVP, Partnership Management and Business Development, SIA Engineering Company) will share his reflections and host a conversation with new Management Committee members, Oliver Chamberlain (Rolls-Royce) and Yap Siok Leng (Meggitt). We will then breakout into small groups to join friends old and new in casual conversation.

Please bring your glass of wine or bubbly of choice for a year-end toast. "Here's to staying positive, and testing negative!"
