WELCOME TO THE SINGAPORE PAVILION

Widely acknowledged as Asia's Leading Aerospace Hub, Singapore holds the largest and most diverse aviation ecosystem in the region. With more than 100 airlines, Changi is one of the busiest airports for international traffic, flying over 68.3 million passengers to over 300 cities in more than 80 countries in 2019.

Singapore is also home to over 130 aerospace companies and 22,000 aerospace professionals, powered with capabilities from Manufacturing to Maintenance, Repair, and Overhaul (MRO) services, providing a comprehensive range of products, solutions and services from nose-to-tail.

With a trusted reputation, Singapore provides a competitive and future-ready market for organisations across the supply chain. Ranked No. 1 in the world for efficiency of sea and air transport in 2019 (WEF, 2019), aerospace firms here can gain easy access to the Asia Pacific region.

Endowed with a diverse R&D ecosystem, strong talent pipeline, and dedicated infrastructure, a base in Singapore will open doors for international businesses to access aviation and aerospace markets in Southeast Asia and the broader Asia-Pacific region.

We welcome you to explore possibilities with us at the Singapore Pavilion!
